PLAN COMMISSION / ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS GENERAL APPLICATION PACKET FOR PUBLIC HEARINGS AND OTHER REQUESTS

This packet has been designed to provide information to assist applicants through the development review and public hearing processes of the Village. To avoid delays and confusion during the process, it is suggested that all applicants closely read the enclosed materials and contact the Community Development Department staff with any questions that may arise.

The following items are enclosed and labeled for your review:

General Application - Form A (2 pages)

Explanation of Site Plan Requirements

Applicants will also be provided with a separate handout relative to each specific development review request. The handouts provide detailed information regarding the application requirements and public hearing process.

While these items provide a basic outline of Village requirements, applicants are encouraged to review or purchase a copy of the Village Zoning and Subdivision Codes. These documents contain detailed information which is useful and often necessary to formulate a complete and successful application. In addition, these documents indicate what public improvements may be required.

Applicants with any questions on the procedures, ordinances or requirements of the Village of Carol Stream can contact the following individuals for assistance:

Robert J. Glees, Community Development Director..... 630.871.6230
