Two 18-year-old Carol Stream men were arrested early Thursday morning for burglarizing several vehicles in the 600 block of Adam Lane in Carol Stream.

Joshua D. Sirois of 598 Stuart, Carol Stream and Jeffrey T. Knutson of 674 Stuart, Carol Stream were arrested by Carol Stream police officers on Thursday morning in the area of Adam and Andrew Lanes after a resident observed two suspicious males in the area and called the police. The resident called 9-1-1 at approximately 6:07 a.m. and reported that two males were looking into vehicles in private driveways.

Officers responding to the report, observed Sirois and Knutson walking in the area and stopped them. Sirois and Knutson were taken into custody and transported to the police department. They were later charged with burglary to motor vehicle and possession of controlled substances.

Property taken from several vehicles was later recovered. Carol Stream police detectives were able to determine that Sirois and Knutson were responsible for thirteen motor vehicle burglaries in the area, which had occurred within the past week.

"We are especially appreciative of this alert resident calling 9-1-1 to alert us to this activity. Because of the resident's actions, we were able to solve a series of burglaries and return stolen property back to the owners", Deputy Chief Kevin Orr said.

Sirois and Knutson were transported to the DuPage County Jail to await a bond hearing.

All subjects arrested are presumed innocent until found guilty in a court of law.
