

Chief Rick Willing is very proud to announce that the Carol Stream Police Department is the national CHAMPIONS in the municipal category of 51-100 sworn officers for the 2006 National Law Enforcement Challenge. In addition, the department ranked second in the state in the similar category. This recognition follows our first place finish in the State in 2004.

The department will receive our state recognition on August 8th at the IL Chiefs of Police Association conference in Rosemont. The National award will be presented at the International Chiefs of Police Association conference in New Orleans on October 15.

Chief Willing thanks and commends Sgt. John Jungers for his initiative and energy that has made the Carol Stream Police Department nationally recognized in traffic safety programming. His diligence in completing the application process is also commended.

Chief Willing also thanks everyone in the department that contributed to the department's success in traffic safety. Through the combined efforts of the department's patrol officers, traffic officers, sergeants, corporals, records clerks, evidence custodian and all the rest of the support staff, Carol Stream has achieved a distinguished honor.
